

Funeral Liturgy Planning

Music

General Considerations

The parish church in which your funeral liturgy will be celebrated is, in most cases, the same church in which you regularly worshiped or where you 'belonged'. Furthermore, the members of your parish family pray the funeral liturgy. For this reason, it is most appropriate for the current music minister and parish choir to provide the music at all parish funeral liturgies. You may request that other musicians from outside the parish participate in the liturgy. Such personnel are welcome. However, they must respect the plans that are in your file, and/or the current practices of the staff music director.

The scriptures, prayers, and symbols used in the liturgy are given to us by the Church to strengthen our belief in resurrection to everlasting life. For this reason, we pray the funeral liturgy not only as a "farewell" to the deceased, but to console one another in the faith of Christ. Just like Sunday liturgy, the music in a funeral liturgy should strongly support the meaning of the scriptures as well as the general theme, in this case, resurrection. Our current Catholic hymnbooks are filled with selections that are most appropriate for such liturgies. In the pages that follow, you will see titles and texts of these hymns.

Secular songs, (non-religious or popular) in most cases, usually lack the qualities that make them appropriate for the Catholic funeral liturgy. For this reason, we ask that such music not be used during the liturgy. These songs might be most appropriately shared with family and friends who gather at the Wake service at the funeral home. (please see the "Wake Service Planner" for more details)

Marian Hymns

Most Marian hymn texts do not directly support the scripture texts or prayers of the funeral liturgy. However, we do understand that some of our deceased or family members of the deceased may have a great devotion to Our Lady. In view of this deep devotion, a Marian hymn may be used.

Funeral Liturgy

Appropriate Music and Text

The following list of songs and hymns are those that are appropriate for a funeral liturgy according to their texts. After you review the texts and make your selections, you may list them by title in the "Preferred Music Selections" section of the planning sheet.

Please contact the Director of Music/Liturgy if you would like additional assistance when making your selections.

The songs listed below were chosen because of their texts, which all center around the theme of trust, faith, and joy in the Resurrection of Christ.

When I am lost, when love can't be found,
when no one cares, Lord, stand by me.

-How Can I keep from Singing

1. My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.
No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?
2. Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing;
It sounds and echoes in my soul;
How can I keep from singing?
No storm can shake...

-Prayer of St. Francis

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
And where there's sadness ever joy.
3. O Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled, as to console,
To be understood, as to understand,
To be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

-Only in God

Only in God is my soul at rest
In Him comes my salvation
He only is my Rock

When the enemy pursues me
Only in God is found glory
When I am found meek and found lowly
My stronghold
my Savior
I shall not be afraid at all
My stronghold
my Savior
I shall not be moved
Only in God is my soul at rest
In Him comes my salvation

Bread of life, bread of life.
Your true presence in this holy sacrifice. Bread of life.
